SUBJECT: Sino-US Talks: Confirmation of Date for 136th Meeting

REF: STATE 16143; 16245

1. SIMONS, with CHAMPEAU, called on CH' IEN and LIU at

Chicom Embassy 1030 February 4. ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~

2. Simons stated he had come under instruction to inform Chinese we agreed to February 20 date for 136th meeting, with understanding it would take place US Embassy at 1400. Ch'ien said he would report to Charge, but date, site, and time could be considered confirmed. Simons then said that in accordance with past practice, we would be making press announcement within 24 hours that 136th meeting would be held February 20 in US Embassy. Ch'ien replied Chinese would be making separate announcement and agreed to press announcements in accordance with past practice. During subsequent small talk,

Ch'ien left Liu/<sup>alone</sup>~~along~~ with Americans and returned to say he had reported to Charge and above understandings confirmed.

3. Ch'ien asked whether Ambassador's departure would be delayed and whether KREISBERG and ANDERSON would be coming for 136th meeting. Simons said he understood my schedule being rearranged and he was practically certain Kreisberg and Anderson would attend, although this not yet <sup>confirmed.</sup> ~~confirmed.~~

The image displays eight horizontal rows of a continuous roll of perforated paper. Each row consists of a series of small, evenly spaced circular holes. The paper is dark in color, and the holes are light, creating a high-contrast pattern. The rows are slightly offset from each other, showing the depth of the roll. The overall appearance is that of a standard continuous-feed paper used in early computing or data processing systems.

~~44~~ ~~44~~ Atmosphere, although it should be described to press as informal if description necessary (no paper, no notes), was almost cheery. Ch'ien and Simons smoked; everyone had
